The health and beauty care instrument born of a perfect harmony of natural therapy and scientific therapy

Body Elance

■ Body Elance's far infrared rays

– Are the purest among the sun's rays and is the radiant heat that directly touches the body without the medium of air due to high thermal efficiency. It penetrates deeply into the skin and exerts effects on muscles and articulations so as to fundamentally eliminate the causes of fatigue. Science of far infrared rays that helps produce natural heat and solve obesity problem by stimulating molecules composing body cells and promoting their movement.

This is a new-concept medical instrument called 'Body Elance.'

■ Body Elance's nano-ceramic PH method

– Is a three and higher-dimensional energy generator system utilizing nano-ceramic products developed by Nano Technology first time in the world, which produces Qi and light energy, space energy, zero point energy, free energy, and transversal and longitudinal waves. Furthermore, it can be described as a system that generates and amplifies space energy of limitless power by absorbing, amplifying, and radiating such infinite force.

■ Body Elance pulse therapy

– Is so effective in promoting blood and lymphatic flow to sensory nerves and sympathetic nerves and thus strengthening the functions of the five viscera and the six entrails of the body (meaning every part of our body) as to keep the body in shape, in giving elasticity to the skin by building up muscles, as well as in dissolving and burning subcutaneous fat to improve one's figure; it is also very effective in whole-body obesity care, removal of abdominal obesity that is especially the cause of adult diseases, and removal of excess flab around the waist.
